Financial Policies:

- The first tuition payment is due on the first day of school and then the first business day of each month thereafter.
- There is a five-day Grace Period. After Grace Period, a $25 late fee will be assessed unless a written agreement is arranged with and signed by the principal prior to the end of the Grace Period.
- Payment may be made by cash, check, ACH transfer, debit card, or credit card.
  - Debit/credit card transactions will be charged a non-refundable fee of 3%.
- Non-sufficient funds (NSF) will be assessed a fee of $35.
- Accounts must be kept current. Delinquent accounts of more than 25 days after the Grace Period will be referred to the Finance Committee, and students will be asked to stay home until the account is brought current. An exception to this policy may be made if a written agreement is arranged with and signed by the principal prior to the end of the Grace Period and all terms of the contract are fulfilled.
- Accounts must be current in order for an 8th grade student to receive his/her diploma at graduation.
- Enrollment and other fees must be paid at enrollment.
- If a student withdraws or is asked to leave school, tuition will be prorated on a daily basis.
